

DJ Eloy

BAND STORY

"Trained since the age of two, DJ Eloy has the versatility to appeal to vinyl and CD aficionados and the skills to hold a crowd during peak club hours of twelve to four am. DJ Eloy has already spun at some of the hottest clubs in the city with no respect to genre such as Roxy NYC, Tunnel, and Avalon and currently maintains residencies at 49 Grove, Mixx Lounge, Green Room NYC, and Roxy NYC. Born from a family of DJs, he has close personal ties to some of the greatest DJs across various genres such as DJ Cut, DJ AM, DJ Bacho, DJ Crooked, and Danny Teneglia.

His DJ appearances began at Club Red in the Bronx. Meanwhile, by day DJ Eloy worked as a buyer for Satellite Records, supplying music to some of the world's most notorious DJs. Shortly after that, DJ Eloy expanded his appearances from Club Red to X-Bar (formerly known as Jimmy's Bronx Café), Jet Set Café, Skate Key and The Loft in the late nineties. After this, he set his sights on penetrating the Manhattan club scene. His roster boasts spinning for some of the hottest artists and celebrities such as Ludacris, Busta Rhymes, Carmen Electra, Dave Navarro, Seth Green, Lawrence Fishburne, and Eva Mendez.

His DJ skills have been called upon for various VIP events such as Saturday Night Live cast after parties featuring famous SNL members like Dan Akroid and Will Farrel. He has even launched a variety of premium and sophisticated brands such as Drambuie Scotch, NYPM Cosmetics, Hypnotiq Liquer, X-Rated Fusion Liquer, Smirnoff Vodka and multiple movie release parties for film houses such as Warner Brothers, Paramount such as Warner Brothers, Paramount Studios and Universal Pictures. In addition, he has also traveled to exotic locations such as Puerto Rico to perform by request.

On New Year's Eve 1999, DJ Eloy spun at the Jungle Sky Records Millennium party, which was broadcast worldwide on the internet and reached over 12 million listeners. DJ Eloy is also very adept at catered events, having performed at a variety of weddings, proms, sweet sixteens, fraternity/sorority events and corporate events for Sony's music division after hosting a lecture on cutting edge DJ technology at Sony Wonder technology lab.

With a long history of being ahead on technology that affects the DJ world, DJ Eloy has already mastered remixing, mixing and editing music live, and now seeks to do the same with video for live performances. Currently, he utilizes Rane Serato Scratch Live, which enables him to turn his laptop into a mobile music arsenal. After years of holding crowds in the NYC metro area and exponentially increasing the fan base of every club at which he has held a residency, DJ Eloy now sets his sights on expanding into national and international locales such as Las Vegas, Miami, Los Angeles, Buenos Aires, Montreal, Europe, Japan, Australia and Singapore.
