

Johnny Bennett

BAND STORY

Johnny Bennett is a solo pop rock artist currently living and recording in Nashville, TN.

Trained at North Carolina School of the Arts, Bennett used his classical background and began writing and singing for a series of bands before focusing on solo releases. His works include "The Going Price" 1999, Fletcher "Demonstrations of False Momentum" 2003, "Gone Missing" EP 2005, "Here's Tomorrow" 2006 and his latest effort "Red Light Room" EP 2007.

Johnny Bennett has held residency in Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York and now Nashville. His music is an attempt to capture some honest experiences from day-to-day life. Bennett's songs have been produced in several ways from stripped down raw acoustic, to acoustic rock on to full pop rock productions. He has had the opportunity to open up for such greats as The Doobie Brothers, Lynard Skynard, Simple Minds, Pat Benatar and Maceo Parker. He has also played on the streets, boardwalks, subways and coffee houses of the biggest music cities in the country.
