BAND STORY

Kiley Bland (guitar / lead vocals), Steve Cox (drums) and Adam Hoffoss (bass / vocals) - three southern boys from The ARK-LA-TX area with big dreams of some day escaping the country back roads, trailer parks and barn dances to be in a rock and roll band. Well, those three guys made their dreams come true, and their band is Junior.

After a typically boisterous SXSW showcase in 2006, Junior was signed to upstart indie label Toucan Cove Entertainment, which has national distribution through Universal Republic. The debut record out June 5th, captures the wild musical ride that has already earned them a worldwide reputation. Featuring the song "She's So Amazing," co-written by multi-platinum Bowling for Soup's Jaret Reddick (who also shares lead vocals), the record promises to deliver the audience-gratifying fun and energy for which Junior is known. It will also include a faithful rendition of the classic Poison romantic "Talk Dirty to Me," the anthemic "NASCAR Man" and the rollicking first single "What Was I Thinking".

Bringing muscle to the team is Union Entertainment Group, Junior's management and home to charting, touring and award-winning artists such as Nickelback, Default, Red, Candlebox and Cinderella.

In the meantime, Junior continues their legendary road show. Having performed with Bowling for Soup, All-American Rejects, Everclear, Red Jumpsuit Apparatus, Reel Big Fish, Lifehouse and on the Vans Warped
